TO THE KINGS
 MOST EXCELLENT
 MAJESTIE,

The humble Petition of the LORDS and COMMONS assembled in PARLIAMENT.

Most gracious Sovereign, H He present Evils and Calamities wherewith your Kingdoms are most miserably in-tangled, the imminent dangers which threaten your Royall Person, and all your People, have caused us your most A 3 faithfaithfull and obedient Subjects, the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament, with thank-fulnesse to entertain, and with all earnestnesse of affection and endeavour to pursue the gracious Proposition and Direction which not long since we have received from your Majestie: And we have thereupon taken into our most serious consideration the wayes and means of securing the safety of your Royall Person, Preserving the Honour and Authority of your Crown, Removing all Jealousies betwixt your Majestie and your People, Suppressing the Rebellion in Ireland, Preventing the Fears and Dangers in this Kingdom, and the mischievous mischievous Designes of those who are Enemies to the Peace of it. And that we may with more Comfort and Security accomplish our duties herein, we most humbly beseech your Majestie, That you will be pleased forthwith to put the Tower of London, and all other Forts, and the whole Mi- litia of the Kingdom, into the hands of such Persons as shall be recommended unto your Majestie by both Houses of Parliament, which they assure themselves will be a hopefull entrance into those Courses, which (through Gods blessing) shall be effectuall for the removing all diffidence and mis-apprehension betwixt your Majestie and your People,

People, and for Establishing and Enlarging the Honour, Great-nesse, and Power of your Majestie and Royall Posterity, and for the restoring and confirming the Peace and Happinesse of your loyall Subjects in all your Dominions.

And to this our most necessary Petition, we in all Humility expect your Majesties speedy and gracious Answer, the great Distractions and Distempers of the Kingdom not admitting any delay.

TO
betwixt your Majesty and your People

THE KINGS MOST

Excellent MAJESTIE:

The humble Petition of the Lords and Commons now assembled in Parliament

Sheweth,

THat whereas your Majestie by a Message sent to both Houses of Parliament, signified an Apprehension of some Treasonable matter to have been committed by the

B

Lord

Lord Kymbolton, Master Hollis, Sir Arthur Haslerig, Master Pym, Master Hampden, and Master Strode; and thereby declared your Majesties intention to proceed against them in an unquestionable way: VV^{er} the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, did make our humble Petition to your Majestie, to beseech your Majestie to give directions that Your Parliament might be informed before Tuesday then next ensuing, what proof there was against them, that accordingly there might be a Le-gall and Parliamentary proceeding against them, whereby they might be brought to condigne punishment nishment, if guilty; or discharged from so heavy an Accusation, if innocent: And whereas your Majestie was graciously pleased in Answer to that Petition, to expresse Your good approbation of the desire of both Houses; for the speedy proceeding against the Persons in that Petition mentioned; yet your Majestie gave no other satisfaction to their desire then this, That your Majestie held it necessary, lest a new mistake should breed more delays, that it should be resolved, whether your Majestie were bound, in respect of Priviledges, to proceed against them by impeachment in that Parliament, or no.

be left at liberty to preferre an Indictment at the Common Law, in the usuall way, or to have Your choice of either; and we finding still, that there is no Legall and Parliamentarie proceedings against them, and that they still lie under the burden of that high Charge, We think it our duty once again to beseech your Majestic to give directions, that your Parliament may be informed before Friday next, what proof there is against them, that accordingly they may be called to a Legall Triall, it being the undoubted Right and Priviledge of Parliament, That no Member of Parliament can be proceeded against against, without the consent of Parliament: And this we most humbly conceive our selves obliged to ask, it being no lesse agreeable with justice, to have the innocency of Parties unjustly charged, manifested, then to bring the Nocent to their just punishment.

against, without the consent of Parliament: And this we most humbly conceive our selves obliged to ask, it being no less agreeable with justice, to have the innocency of Paris unjustly charged, manifested, than to bring the Nocturn to their just punishment.

HIS MAJESTIES
A N S W E R

To two Petitions of the LORDS and COMMONS, delivered
Febr. 2. 1641.

His Majesty having well considered of the two several Petitions, presented unto him on Wednesday the second of this moneth, from both Houses of Parliament, and being desirous to expresse expresse how willing He is to apply a remedy, not onely to your Dangers, but even to your Doubts and Fears; He therefore, to that Petition which concerns the Forts and Militia of this Kingdom, returns this answer; That when He shall know the extent of Power which is intended to be established in those persons, whom you desire to be the Commanders of the Militia in the severall Counties; And likewise to what time it shall be limited, that no power shall be executed by His Majestie alone, without the advice of Parliament;

Then He will declare, That (for the securing you from all Dangers, or Fealousies of any) His Majestie will be content to put in all the places both of Forts and Militia in the

the severall Counties, such persons as both the Houses of Parliament shall either approve, or recommend unto Him, so that you declare before unto His Majestie, the names of the persons whom you approve or recommend: unlesse such persons shall be named; against whom He shall have just and unquestionable exceptions.

To the other Petition concerning the members of either House, His Majestie returns this Answer, That as He once conceived that He had ground enough to accuse them, so now His Majestie finds as good cause wholly to desert any prosecution of them.

And for a further testimony of His Majesties reall Intention towards all His loving Subjects, (some of whom happily may be involved in some unknowing and unwilling Errors) For the better composing and settling of all Fears and Fealousies of what kinde soever , His Majestie is ready to grant as free and generall a Pardon for the full contentment of all His loving Subjects, as shall by the approbation of both Houses of Parliament be thought convenient for that purpose.

His

His MAJESTIES Consent for the Princesse Maries going to HOLLAND,

And Her Majestie to accompany Her thither.

His Majestie being very much pressed by the States Ambassadors to send the Princesse his Daughter immediately into Holland : And being likewise earnestly desired by his Royall Consort the Queen to give her Majestie leave to accompany her Daughter thither, hath thought fit to consent to both desires, and to make this his Majesties Consent, and her Majesties Resolution known to his Parliament.

And Her Majesty to accompany her Daughter to accompany her Daughter thither, hath thought fit to consent to both desires, and to make this his Majesties Consent, and her Majesties Resolution known to his Parliament.

¶ Her Majesties Answer to a Message of both Houses.

The Queen having received a Message from both Houses of Parliament by the Earl of Newport and the Lord Seymore, intimating unto her, that she had been told that the House of Commons had an intention to accuse Her of high Treason, and that Articles to that purpose had been shewed unto her, Returns this Answer,

That there was a generall report of an Accusation intended against her, but she never saw any Articles in Writing, and having no certain Author either for the one or for the other, she gave little credit thereun-to, and much lesse now being assured from the House of Commons that never any such thing came into their thoughts.

For Will she beleve they would lay an Aspersion upon her, who hath ever been very unapt so far to mis-confer the Actions of any one person, and much more the proceedings of Parliament, and shall at all times wish a happy understanding between the King and his people.
